

Forks River School, in partnership with its community and parents, will develop students who have a learner's heart, are honorable in speech and conduct, and effective citizens with compassion for our world.